

Mike Rowan – The following was submitted by Virgil Hayes: When Mike found out that I had fallen because of slick concrete floors (stripped) he replaced them with a floor covering at his own expense and labor to provide safety to myself and my wife never asking for anything in return. Mike is incredible and deserves to be recognized as “self-less” and “of service” in a magnificent manner.