

Pride of Safford Award Recipient Recognized:

Sharon Wysocki has been a valuable volunteer to the community's hospice patients. Sharon saw a need to help these patients recover their appetites, so she started the Hospice Cowgirl Comfort Food Project. She delivers her home made baked goods even on horseback at times and offers rides to the patients. Her acts of kindness and generosity demonstrate that she is truly a person who serves others. Sharon states that volunteerism is "in her soul" and would like to thank all who help support her project.
