

Pride of Safford Recipient Safford Builders Ace Hardware –

Pride, Pride, Pride! Everywhere one looked Pride was evident on April 27, 2013 as Safford Builders Ace Hardware celebrated their 75th birthday of the Owens Family owned business. In addition to the assorted ways the 75th anniversary was celebrated, Safford Builders also received the Pride of Safford Award for Pride in Ownership!

Recently Safford Builders has undergone an appreciable facelift on its exterior. The old facade now carries an updated look. Stucco was added in earth tones with new signage displaying the Safford Builders - Ace Hardware name. On the interior counters were redone with one maintaining the nostalgic look by using corrugated metal from the exterior and pictures depicting a look back over the past 75 years are displayed. Under the leadership of manager Preston Owens and the original design work of the late H.D. Owens Safford Builders exterior easily passes for a modern day structure.

The Pride of Safford commends Safford Builders for the additional beauty they have added to the downtown area of Safford. Through efforts such as this one can readily see that Safford is truly a great place to live, work, and visit. Add in the recent naming of Safford Builders as the best customer service in downtown Safford and Safford is also a great place to shop!
